UTHANDO (LOVE) SOUTH AFRICA

UTHANDO means LOVE in Xhosa and Zulu, two of South Africa's 11 official languages.

Uthando (Love) South Africa "Uthando" is a Cape Town based Non Profit Organisation (NPO) and Public Beneficiary Organisation (PBO) founded on the 17th of October 2007. Uthando raises awareness, funds and other forms of assistance for a broad range of fully independent, innovative and inspiring grass roots, community based empowerment and development projects and charitable organisations.

Uthando shines a light on remarkable change-makers and activists who are engaged in vital community and nation building initiatives, whilst striving to provide assistance to these organisations.

The beneficiary community development projects are vetted by Uthando, independent, well managed and accountable. Money reaches the beneficiaries directly and is highly impactful.

Most community projects are registered Non Profit Organisations, but not all of them. Uthando is supporting a myriad of grass roots organic urban micro farms and choirs which have come to rely heavily on income from Uthando.

Uthando is working with and supporting organisations in the following sectors:

Organic urban agriculture, youth development through music, dance, singing or sport, animal rights and protection, skills development, early childhood development, protection for vulnerable women and children, LGBTQI+, feeding schemes, medical (eyes), disabilities, rural development, homelessness, and the environment. We are in the process of finding a project dealing with refugees since ARESTA closed its doors recently.

Through cherished partnerships, Uthando has helped to transform six Early Childhood Development Centres from informal structures into world class pre-school buildings in which quality education can take place. Organisations such as Ikamva Labantu provide teacher training and curriculum, ensuring a high standard of education is provided for the children.

Uthando runs "Educational Philanthropic Excursions" on week days Monday to Friday. The excursions offer an opportunity for visitors and / or potential donor stakeholders to engage with, learn from and be a partner to people and programs committed to positive change in their communities. The excursions also provide an opportunity for existing donors to visit the community projects which they have supported through Uthando.

We invite you to peruse this document, select a community project that resonates with your interests and passion. Donations can be done via the Uthando website, by EFT using bank details contained in this document or by contacting jamesfern timer@uthandosa.org

Uthando is inviting tourism companies to "adopt" a community development partner, and make monthly, quarterly or annual donations to those projects through Uthando. 100% of the funds are passed onto the recipient community project but Uthando facilitates to the relationship between community project and tourism stakeholder.

Ulwazi EduCare Centre constructed out of tyres and plastic bottles

"We are so incredibly proud of the truly inspiring, innovative, courageous, tenacious and hard-working community activists who are leading the myriad of community development projects that Uthando is working with and supporting. So often their efforts go unrecognized and unrewarded, so it gives us such joy to shine a bright light on their important work. Through our Philanthropic Educational Excursions, we introduce these highly impactful programmes and change-makers to visitors and potential donors, mostly tourism stakeholders and travellers. Honestly, if we could bottle the emotion that we experience on these excursions where we bringing visitors and locals activists together in a spirit of mutually beneficial learning and respect, and distribute those little bottles of love far and wide, I know that we would touch many hearts very deeply. We are so grateful to our partners, friends and benefactors for sharing this magical journey with us. May we all find inspiration from the words of our National Anthem, Nkosi Sikilel iAfrika of God Bless Africa– James Fernie, Founder, Uthando (Love) South Africa

"With life being a long lesson in humility', we are truly inspired by the incredible dedication of the many leaders and members of the community development projects Uthando is working with.

Their passion is our strength, through their commitment, we find hope! Thank you so much to our wonderful donors, friends and colleagues for the amazing on-going support to Uthando, this contributes to meaningful change in our communities. Enkosi kakhulu, your sense of care and love is truly appreciated." Xolani Maseko, Uthando 2012 - present

"In a year filled with uncertainty, desperation and sadness, Uthando continually sent rays of light and hope when we need them most and, without their unwavering and regular financial support, we would not have been able to provide the level of care and healing to our families that we did. Uthando is, beyond a doubt, Love." Dwyn Griesel, Kronendal Music Academy (2021)

"Uthando goes beyond tourism, they care" – Mario Van Niekerk, Greater Commission United (GCU), Heideveld (2021)

"As usual, Uthando let's us know loud and clear – "we are with you Abalimi!". Your little and big drops of love make huge ripples, even tidal waves and tsunamis. You are as always a very bright star in our sky." Rob Small, Abalimi Bezekhaya (2021)

"Uthando SA, whenever I think of you I become so emotional, I am not going to say much but thank you for not coming and going away in our lives, thank you for not being an observer in our lives but deciding to be a true participant. You have shown us Love, bhuti Xolani, thank you for being a role model to my boys., kwande apho uthathe khona (more blessing to you)!!"

- Mama Yandi Mazwana, Masi Creative Hub

"Do you have any idea how lucky Cart Horse Protection Association is to have you as one of our most dedicated supporters. We really cannot thank you enough for what you do for us."

- Karin Paschen

ABALIMI BEZEKHAYA "FARMERS OF HOME" (ORGANIC URBAN AGRICULTURE / FOOD SECURITY)

Abalimi Bezekhaya ("farmers of the home" in isiXhosa) is a non-profit, urban-farming organization, established in 1982. We teach people in the townships to grow vegetables organically through providing training, access to resources and infrastructure support. We also support with organisation building and market access so that farmers can sell their vegetables. The goal is to encourage organic food production for nutrition, health, food security and income generation.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

Abalimi Bezekhaya require core funding to be able to provide affordable and accessible training and support from our garden centres in Khayelitsha and Nyanga for local home and community gardens.

- Composted manure – they are currently paying around R10 000 for a truckload (10m3) of composted manure and need at least six loads a month.
- Resources such as seeds, seedlings and fertilizer – they pay around R20 000 per month for seeds, seedlings and fertilizer. This is obviously seasonal, with the biggest need during March to May and then again in July through to October.
- Field work support– covering overheads to be able to run the garden centres and provide support based on their five pillars (training, resources, market access, infrastructure and organisation development). Abalimi Bezekhaya also have two vehicles that they use for deliveries which they need to keep on the road and cover the significant increases in cost of fuel.
- Training bursaries - Training is valued at R930 per person for three days basic training, yet this is subsidized and the community members only pay R70 for this training course which includes meals, resources, training manual, practical and theory, as well as a certificate and start up pack. Abalimi Bezekhaya have seen a huge increase in the need for training post COVID from about 300 to over 900 people per annum.

ALCARDO ANDREWS FOUNDATION (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AND FEDDING SCHEME)

The Alcardo Andrews Foundation (AAF) was established in Hanover Park in 2015 in honour of a young man who lost his life through gang violence. With his passion for people, he dreamt of a peaceful and safe community without gangsterism. Driven by his mother and family, the foundation honours his vision and legacy through the AAF.

The foundation is a catalyst for change in a community subjected to social ills that include poverty, gang violence, substance abuse, unemployment, gender-based violence. Their main objective is "Healing Hanover Park Holistically".

AAF has four pillars namely:

- Moms Move 4 Justice: Support mothers that lost loved ones. It provides psycho-social support to progress from a point of pain to healing and purpose. And provides court support.
- Youth Program: Assists vulnerable youth from the ages of 8 - 20 through its workshops, after-school program, holiday program and healing therapy.
- The Fathers Heart Program: Provides direct psycho-social support and parent training for the fathers. Men who participated are currently playing a role in the community.
- Food Project: Operates from the Uthando Kitchen where meals are prepared, community members and surrounding areas are served.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Food Provision - budget R180 000
- Education – budget R30 000
- Development - holiday programme and camps R100 000

AMY FOUNDATION (AFTER SCHOOL AND YOUTH SKILLS DEVELOPMENT)

Amy Foundation (formerly the Amy Biehl Foundation) is an NPO based in Cape Town, South Africa working to educate, develop and empower youngsters from challenged and vulnerable townships communities, keeping them away from the negative influences and turning them into emotionally well-rounded contributing global citizens who make positive life choices. They carry out After School, Vocational Skills and Youth Skills Development including entrepreneurial programmes.

Participants can enter programmes from primary and secondary schools and continue after leaving school until they become economically active. The various projects support over 1000 youngsters in their 4 after-school (ASP) centres based in the underprivileged communities, namely Gugulethu, Philippi and Bonteheuwel, and a centre for youth skills development (YSD) and training in Sybrand Park, with youth attending from all the various townships.

The ASP attempt to supplement the shortcomings of the educational system in the townships, while the YSD programme addresses the unacceptably high unemployment levels in these challenged communities.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

BETTERCHOICE GUMBOOT DANCE (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH DANCE)

Betterchoice Gumboot Dance is a community-based youth project established in 2012 by Eric Xezu based in Site B Khayelitsha. Betterchoice has 35 participating members of boys and girls, ages ranging from 7 to 15 years. The program focuses on teaching children Gumboot and Traditional style dance and offers a homework club to assist children with their studies.

The mission of Betterchoice Gumboot Dance is to provide children with alternative after-school activities to combat the influence of drugs, gang violence, and alcohol abuse, which runs rampant in the community. The program offers these vulnerable children a "BETTER CHOICE" by giving them a productive and creative outlet for expression and entertainment. The after-school homework sessions provide a safe, productive environment to pursue their academic goals.

BRAVE ROCK GIRL (ADOLESCENT GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN)

BRAVE inspires and empowers girl leaders and collaborates with organizations and people who can provide the resources, knowledge, experience, and safety that girls need to lead. Seven alumni are now Senior Leaders in BRAVE, working with 90 adolescent girls from Manenberg. They provide personal and leadership development workshops, environmental education, access to mental health support and exposure to new experiences (outdoors and cultural history). In addition, they facilitate the production of media content by the girls and run the organization alongside a professional support team.

Their primary goal is to create safe spaces for underserved girls between the ages of 10-18 on the Cape Flats so they can become educated, resilient, and engaged girl leaders in their communities, schools, and their own lives.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Care Packs - Food and school supplies. Cost of food parcels for 90 families at R200 per family. School supplies stationery for 90 girls with the average cost of R1 000 per girl.
- Activities Clubs - BRAVE's activities includes book club, capoeira, swimming, dancing and hiking clubs. These activities are conducted (planned) twice or 3 times a month with small groups of girls. Cost per hike is R2000, which includes transport, meals and any entry fees that may be required.
- Daring Disa - An important part of the programme exposes the girls to nature reserves, biodiversity and fynbos. Cape Leopard Trust takes 25 girls on a 2-day camp. Costs include R1 000 per girl for hiking shoes and personal hygiene needs for the camp totaling R25 000.

CART HORSE PROTECTION ASSOCIATION (ANIMAL WELFARE)

The Cart Horse Protection Association (CHPA), a non-profit Cape Town based animal welfare organisation, was started in 1995 to improve the welfare of the working horses on the Cape Flats. The CHPA is established as a centre of excellence for working equine welfare in the Western Cape. Its mission is to promote the welfare of working horses and donkeys through service provision, legislation, education and training. It protects the working cart horses and donkeys from abuse on the Cape Flats.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

CHPA offers heavily subsidized feed, oat hay and 10% Romix, which costs over R1 000 000 per annum.

Farrier services are also heavily subsidized, charging only R100 for a set of shoes. Farrier services costs over R300 000 per annum.

CHPA have a Recovery and Rehabilitation Centre in Gordon's Bay where all the confiscated, neglected and abused horses are taken to, mended back to mental and physical health and hopefully find their forever homes through our adoption program. The Recovery and Rehabilitation costs over R1 600 000 per annum.

Annual budget is R9 650 074

CHRISTEL HOUSE SCHOOL (EDUCATION)

Christel House is a global non-profit organisation with a single mission: to break the cycle of poverty. The organisation operates nine schools internationally (USA, India, Mexico, Jamaica and South Africa) of which the school in Cape Town, Christel House South Africa, is the only one in Africa. Established in 2001, Christel House offers no-fee scholarships to students from some of Cape Town's poorest neighborhoods and supports them for 19 years (Grade RR to Grade 12 and five years post-school) through character-based and career-focused education. The main criteria for entry into the school is a maximum average income of R1 500 per household member per month. They enroll 800+ students from grade RR (age 4) to Grade 12 (age 18), and support 220+ student alumni for five years post-school (up until age 23).

Basic needs and approximate budgets

Sponsor a Student – In addition to providing top-quality education, key aspects of their model include daily transport to school and back, professional health care, nutritious meals, psychosocial counselling, family assistance and career planning and support. Cost per student R69 775; cost per grade R4 186 500 and total cost R56 517 750 per annum.

Feed a student(s) – Each student receives a nutritious breakfast, lunch and two snacks per day. Given the severely impoverished homes that the children come from, the meals received at school are often the only food the child will eat that day. Cost per student R3,450, cost per grade R203 037 and total cost R2 795 000 per annum.

Stationery - Including pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, paint & paintbrushes, rulers, chalk, workbooks, and calculators. They provide their students with all their learning materials to ensure that they have all they need to succeed. Cost per student R395; cost per grade R23 700 and total cost R316 000 per annum.

- R1 000 stipends for volunteers

EZIKO “FIREPLACE” COOKING SCHOOL (CATERING TRAINING CENTRE)

Eziko Cooking and Catering School is a community-based project located in Langa, one of the oldest townships in Cape Town. Eziko acts as an entry-level skill center in catering and the hospitality field. Eziko specializes in food preparation and cooking courses, baking, and drinks service, preparing students for a career in cooking and catering.

A student body from previously disadvantaged communities within the greater Cape Town area, Eziko also has students enrolled from other African countries such as Angola, Zimbabwe, and Cameroon.

The school's six-month training program in basic cooking and catering skills facilitates in-service training to familiarize its students with first-hand work experience. Eziko assists in placing their students at well-known hospitality businesses such as Cape Town International Convention center, Cape Milner hotel, Sky Chef, Bidvest foodservice training, Caturra Coffee, and International Wine Education center.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

EYES2EYES FOUNDATION (THE GIFT OF SIGHT)

The Eyes2Eyes Foundation is a South African non profit organisation that helps patients with preventable corneal blindness. Blindness and severe low vision have a huge impact on the cycle of poverty and unemployment in our country, especially amongst our youth.

At Eyes2Eyes we believe no one should have to live with blindness when a solution is available. Imagine a young child not being able to attend school because their eyesight is so poor? Sight that cannot be corrected with glasses or ordinary contact lenses due to corneal disease. Public Health in South Africa does not fund the intervention these young people need. That's where Eyes2Eyes steps in.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

Since launching their Scleral Lens Program at the Groote Schuur Hospital Cornea Clinic, they have helped restored sight to 23 pairs of eyes. They have many, many more patients on the waiting list and each week, new patients are added. 90% of these patients are children or young adults. When they are first assessed, sight is limited to detecting hand movement. By fitting them with highly customized scleral contact lenses, that act as a prosthetic cornea, their eyesight is restored.

Total cost for two lenses is R25 455 per patient plus a 6 month maintenance home pack of storage and cleaning solutions for each patient, which totals R4 000.

FEED THE KHALTSHA ORGANIC GARDEN (ORGANIC URBAN AGRICULTURE / FOOD SECURITY)

Feed the Khaltsha (FTK) Organic Garden was established in February 2020 by Thapelo Xabanisa. The garden is located behind the Sibongile Day and Night Care Centre for children with cerebral palsy. The garden was started with the intention of supplying organic vegetables to the Sibongile Centre, providing the children with healthy organic vegetables and assisting the centre to save thousands of rand every month. The demand for vegetables in the area grew and as a result prompted FTK to also sell vegetables to the community at large. From the initial 3 beds of spinach, the garden has grown tremendously and is currently about 403m2 in size with a variety of seasonal vegetables being planted.

The team has extensive training and knowledge in organic agri-processes that include soil preparation, planting, and cultivation; sales and marketing as well as the core principles of permaculture making their garden more efficient and resilient.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Tools - R30 000 per annum
- Resources such as compost, seeds, seedlings - R20 000 per month
- Structure such as shade net, pack house, cement, poles, nails, sand - R20 000
- Stipend - R15 000 per month divided amongst 4 farmers
- There is a field adjacent to the current garden which is approximately the same size. The goal and vision are to start developing that land. Capital investment of around R200 000 is required.

GHETTO GARDENERS (ORGANIC URBAN AGRICULTURE / FOOD SECURITY)

Ghetto Gardeners "GG" was established in 2018 by Ludwe Qamata C in Khayelitsha with the purpose of empowering young and old to grow and nurture organic vegetable gardens.

GG encourage positive change within community and household spaces by transforming community spaces into beautiful vegetable gardens. Ludwe's motto is "Carry the spade and walk us". GG is working with 7 community and household gardens, educating people and helping with cultivation, planting, maintaining and supplying garden inputs such as compost, seedlings etc. GG aims to grow a sustainable program that renders high quality training to the youth and help produce nutritional vegetables for community consumption and sale.

Ludwe and the GG team are based at the Sinovuyo Seniors Club and together with the seniors they grow fresh, organic vegetables for the club and the community. During the Covid-19 crisis, the garden produced good quality vegetables which Ludwe delivered weekly to the seniors in their homes.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Garden inputs – soil amendments (manure, composts & woodchips) as when needed; fertilizers; seedlings and seeds +-R2 000 per quarter. Rain gutter connection (rain catching to supply tanks); fixing of irrigation and borehole system, estimated costs R10 000 once off.
- Cargo Bike (custom made) –to help carry our bulk distribution, and gardening services, estimated costs R15 500 once off.
- Stipend – to provide weekly or monthly wage for one person, estimated cost between R3 000 to R3 500 per month.

GOLDEN FLOWERS MUSEUM AND TOURS (ENTERPRISE)

In 1991, Mr Sonwabo 'Golden' Nongauza had a dream and vision of creating unique flowers out of tin cans from a dump site, thus was born the "Golden Flower". A craft centre in the township of Khayelitsha was established, turning waste tin cans into beautiful flowers. Mr Golden gathered cans and set to work with scissors and pliers; cutting, bending, rolling, gluing and thus creating beautiful flowers.

Together with his wife and children, Mr Golden created a hub-space in his home and constructed a colourful studio, where visitors can experience and learn how he transforms tin cans into a variety of flowers, such as daisies, roses, poppies, lilies, sunflowers and proteas. Currently the hub is managed by Mr Golden's children, he still makes the flowers in his home village in the Eastern Cape and transports them back to Cape Town.

Through his work Mr Golden Nongauza provides for his family and is a shining example of an entrepreneur, using his creativity, knowledge and skills to run a highly successful craft business in a community which has extremely high unemployment.

"Mr Golden Flower" has won several high profile awards and his work is known internationally. He has pioneered in bringing tourism into the townships and his story has been featured in newspapers, magazines and several documentaries. His flowers have been exported to England, Europe, America and Australia

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Museum repairs – fixing the museum boards, wall painting and tiling. Estimated cost R5 000 (material and labour) once off.
- Production materials – glue, paints, craft brushes, fan to dry products. Estimated costs R3 000 as when needed, except for the fan (once off).
- Building material – rhino boards, sand, cement, crestone. Estimated cost R8 000 (including labour).

GCU (GOAL50 EDU HUB) (EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT (ECD))

In September 2022 Ulwazi Educare was officially opened. Built from 1700 tyres, 6000 plastic bottles filled with rubbish and 1600 decompressed film set waste bricks, the ECD is extremely impressive.

In October 2022 fundraising kicked off to build Goal50 Edu Hub, to be constructed with approx. 5000 tyres, 6000 plastic bottles filled with rubbish and 12 000 film set waste bricks. Goal50 will offer foundational education based on the Montessori principles and offer Jubilee Excellence Schools training in conjunction with Shiloh Education www.shiloh.org.za.

The construction of Goal50 Edu Hub will create up to 100 jobs, to be trained using sustainable building methods

Children at schools all over Cape Town will create the eco bricks by collecting plastic bottles and rubbish. This project will really capture the imagination of young people in Cape Town and inspire them to really focus on the challenges of litter and recycling.

Goal50 Edu Hub is highly visible from the N2 Highway driving, every single person driving into Cape Town will see this building being constructed from tyres, plastic bottles and film set waste.

Goal50 will also bring critical attention to the critical issues around early childhood development, education and combatting gangsterism by providing children with opportunity, nurturing and education.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- R4 million required to erect the 5000 tyres wall of the school
- R12 million required to complete the entire school

HOME FROM HOME (HOME BASED CARE / VULNERABLE CHILDREN)

Home from Home (HfH), a non-profit organisation, has provided cluster foster care to vulnerable children in the Western Cape province of South Africa since 2005. The organisation has expanded over the years and now runs 36 homes across 16 communities. This translates into nearly 200 children receiving specialised support and supervision.

In South Africa, where the numbers of orphaned, abandoned and neglected children are staggering, it is crucial to tap into the natural resilience, hope and sense of community that exists. The African philosophy of Ubuntu, of being interconnected and sharing sense of compassion and community is at the core of their purpose in building loving families.

Providing a second chance at a loving family – Loving Family Homes

This programme is the foundation of all the work with children at Home from Home and is where they create a second chance for vulnerable foster children to experience family-style life. HfH provide a comfortable and safe home in the communities from which the children originate and employ staff that speak the children's language and understand their culture.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Educational Providing a Loving Family Home for vulnerable foster children:

INSTITUTE FOR MUSIC AND INDIGENOUS ARTS DEVELOPMENT (IMAD) (EDUCATION AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT)

IMAD teaches music at Eluxolweni Primary School in Khayelitsha, at York Road Primary School in Lansdowne, and at a music community school in Khayelitsha. Music isn't on the curriculum at schools in these disadvantaged areas of Cape Town, and so IMAD is providing these young people with the opportunity to develop a talent which will stand them in good stead throughout their lives.

IMAD have weekly trumpet, trombone, saxophone, piano, guitar, bass guitar and drum lessons. They have choirs at the two primary schools, and there are bands at all three schools. All the bands and choirs perform at IMAD's annual year-end concert, at events in their local communities, and at the Artscape Theatre in Cape Town. Their focus is on teaching and playing South African jazz. The young people from these music schools are able to graduate to the Little Giants youth band, IMAD's standard bearer.

This year they are teaching over 100 young people. In addition, we employ 12 music teachers from these same disadvantaged areas, and so they also provide employment in these difficult economic times.

The Little Giants youth development band is celebrating its 22nd anniversary this year. More than 250 young people have graduated through its ranks. Most of them have gone on to become professional musicians and/or music teachers in South Africa and overseas.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Sponsorship of one of our young musicians: R7,500, $450, £475 or €450 per year.
- Sponsorship of one of their music teachers: R16,400, $1,000, £1,050 or €1,000 per year.

ISIBANE SE AFRIKA “THE LIGHT OF AFRICA” (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT / CHOIR)

Isibane se Afrika is a 52 member “Choir for Change”. Founded in Khayelitsha by Andisiwe Gaqa, the choir gets local youth off the streets - and away from drug and gang culture - and gives them the chance to belong to something positive and uplifting. Choir and junior choir members range in age from 5 up to 35 years of age.

The choir is a registered NGO, and use the funds raised through performances to uplift the local community in Khayelitsha through song, dance, performance and soup kitchens.

The group regularly performs for corporate events, weddings, tourism gatherings with performance including a wonderful mix of singing, dancing, drumming and crowd interaction. A major highlight in the group’s history was performing for the Duke and Duchess of Sussex, Prince Harry and Meghan, during their state visit to South Africa in 2019 and Sir Richard Branson in 2022.

“Isibane se Afrika” literally translates as “the light of Africa”, and the group is powered by a desire to uplift, empower and bring light and hope to their fellow community members.

ISESEKO “THE FOUNDATION” EDUCARE CENTRE (EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT (ECD)

Isiseko, “The Foundation” in isiXhosa Center, is an Early Childhood Development Center (ECD) non-profit organization located in the Mfuleni township.

Founded in 2000 by the beautiful and warm, Mama Zoliswa Siko, Isiseko caters to more than 160 vulnerable and under-privileged children in the community. The Educare centre serves as a safe, nurturing environment for the children to receive pre-school education up to Grade R and an after-school supervision facility. The classes are divided into three sets of age groups ranging between 0-18 months, 3-4 years and 5-6 years, under the care of a team of 7 qualified ECD teachers, alongside the principal.

The educators receive ongoing support and training from Ikamva Labantu – a large and reputable local NGO, which supports the ECD’s center, through ongoing teacher training and other developmental support. With the assistance of cherished partners and donors, Uthando helped transform the center, from a small government house and an informal wooden structure, into a world-class educational facility which officially opened in 2015

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Monthly salary costs: R33 000
- Food / Water & Electricity: R10 000

JAMES HOUSE (CATER FOR DESTITUTE AND VULNERABLE CHILDREN)

James House was established in 1986, initially as a feeding project for poor and vulnerable children in Hout Bay, Cape Town. James is the name of the first child helped and the organisation was aptly named after him. Today, James House is recognised for child protection services and care and development programmes. This work is implemented in the urban townships of Hout Bay and the rural communities of Matzikama (300 km from Cape Town).

James House's vision is for a society where all children can be children, living free from violence, neglect and any form of abuse; where all children can be educated and developed to realise their future potential. Their mission is to advance the rights and potential of children by delivering relevant services and programmes in the immediate environment (home, school & community) of the child, and working in solidarity with communities to drive broader social change.

The organisation is structured around three interrelated Programmes:

- Education & Development, where we create and facilitate spaces for children to be children, to be supported to progress in school and develop their potential.
- Community Engagement, where we work with community groups, networks and stakeholders to influence attitudes, behaviours and practices.
- Families Support, where we support parents/guardians to strengthen the family and improve household living conditions.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

Currently, James House has 200 children (and their families) in its direct care. The annual costs (excluding salaries and overheads) are around R5,400 per child (R450 per month). This includes daily meals, transport, equipment, school clothing, non-perishable food hampers and costs for special events. The total annual costs = R1,080,000

JIKELEZA “TURN AROUND” DANCE PROJECT (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT DANCE)

Jikeleza is a community outreach and development project located in one of the most deprived township neighborhoods in the Greater Hout Bay area, primarily based at Sentinel Intermediate School registered in December 2003 as an NPO. The project uses various jendres to stimulate the children. Currently we have Ballet, Drama , African Dance , Marimba and African Drumming. The children are from the informal settlements of Imizamo Yethu and Hangberg. The project works as a community partnership to address a wide range of social issues (poverty, neglect, violence, drugs, HIV/Aids, poor educational attainment and unemployment)

Jikeleza is rooted in the very center of the South African context as it works across and between so called Coloured and the so called Black African communities who have suffered historical deprivation and exclusion in an area of acute inequality.

Objectives that it wishes to achieve:

- Making use of dance and music to raise awareness around topical social issues
- To create positive role models for the youth at risk
- Provide performance opportunities for young dancers and musicians
- Host artistic workshops during the year conducted by guest teachers subject to Funding

KHAYELITSHA YOUTH CHOIR

Khayelitsha Youth Choir (KYC) was formed in October 2018 by Mihle Mtshana with a goal of empowering young people in Khayelitsha by providing educational and social support through music and choir singing.

KYC has more than 60 members ranging in ages from 14 years to 28 years, singing mostly traditional choral music but also pop & soulful cultural music. The choir performs at events around their community such as weddings, choir competitions and church services. The choir is a haven for their members, providing a safe and nurturing space for them as many face trials and tribulations in their community.

Since establishing a relationship with Uthando in 2021, the choir has had the pleasure of performing alongside one of South Africa's legendary and iconic artist PJ Powers and her band at the 25th birthday celebration of the Table Bay Hotel and at the We Are Africa trade show in March 2022.

The choir is available for performance of any nature or function.

KHUMBULANI “TO REMEMBER” CENTRE (ECD / HEALTH, EDUCATION CENTRE)

Khumbulani Centre was the very first project visited by James Fernie, the Founder of Uthando back in 2007 when Uthando was being launched. Mama Gloria, her deputy Nondumiso Xintolo and the centre hold a very special place in Uthando's hearts.

Khumbulani is a non-profit organisation based in Khayelitsha townships. It was initiated in 2000 by nine women from the area, who wanted to take action against the HIV/AIDS pandemic affecting the community around them.

Their mission is to protect the vulnerable, especially children, and to empower the community as a whole and families in particular to be better able to protect and support their children. They are also focusing on networking with other providers for the benefit of children.

Khumbulani has a staff of 24 and is impacting 260 children. They run the following programmes:

- Early Childhood Development / Day Care for 260 children
- After School for 150 children (offering education and life skills)
- Adult support and empowerment group (mostly women impacted by HIV) reaching 200 people between various adult programmes
- Youth programme (facilitate treatment / intervention for substance abuse)
- Vegetable garden and soup kitchen (especially for people impacted by HIV / AIDS)

KIDDIES EDUCARE (ECD EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT)

Kiddies Educare centre was established by the warm and wonderful principal, Margaret Makhafola, who opened her doors to children in need of daycare, under the age of six. With a focus on the children's well-being, Margaret invests in the education and development of her four permanent staff members and one student assistant. They cater and care for 35 children. She believes that adequate guidance and supervision is the key to unlocking every child's potential in the classroom, home, and for their future.

In 2012, together with SAEP, Uthando provided the funding for transforming a decrepit informal shack structure to a double-story brick building that houses the Kiddies Educare center today.

KRONENDAL MUSIC ACADEMY (KMA) (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH MUSIC)

Kronendal Music Academy is a music school with a difference, where the healing power of music provides a stimulating space for children to spend their afternoons. Pupils also receive hands-on school homework support, a nourishing meal, safe transport, and access to an on-site social worker. Their award-winning Music Course, Pupil Wellness activities, Psycho-Social Support and Stay-In-School programmes, combine into a powerful tool to ensure they are covering as many aspects of each child's growth as possible.

Their methods instil emotional and cognitive skills which will give young people the edge in any interview situation, the resilience needed when dealing with life's setbacks and stresses and the opportunity to break out of the cycle of poverty and, ultimately, raise their own children differently. KMA serves impoverished youth of all genders (aged 7 - 20) from the "coloured" community of Hangberg fishing village and the "African" community of Imizamo Yethu informal settlement.

Poverty, unrest, gangsterism, drugs and other social ills are rife in these underprivileged Hout Bay communities, which are marginalised geographically and economically, vulnerable to shocks and fragility, and subject to unreliable governance and on-going discrimination. In KMA's peaceful, safe and nurturing afternoon environment music tuition facilitates healing processes where children are listened to, without judgement and can set goals, to dream and to thrive, despite the circumstances that they were born into.

LADLES OF LOVE - FILL A POT (FEEDING SCHEME)

FillaPot is our feeding programme, which procures and provides bulk vegetables, grains, pulses and essential ingredients to their network of over 200 community soup kitchens in both the Western Cape and Gauteng. Their distribution centres in Epping and Wynberg, Johannesburg procures and packs pallets of food tailored to meet the needs of each kitchen for collection twice a week. These NPOs or Community Leaders, are mostly unemployed women living in poverty-stricken communities, who opened soup kitchens in their homes during lockdown. With the help of their families and neighbours they manage to prepare, cook and feed thousands of people, on a daily basis.

Since the start of Covid in 2020, Ladles of Love have established and grown this programme to supply food for over a million meals a month. Between March 2020 and October 2022 the food they distributed amounted to 32 million meals.

The Ladles of Love operations team work tirelessly to ensure cost efficiencies and together with their administration department, manage the ordering, receiving and dispatch of food meticulously. Coupled with what they procure, the donations of food products are tracked and recorded to provide a holistic view of meal counts.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

LEARN TO EARN (SKILLS DEVELOPMENT)

Learn to Earn (LtE) is a not-for-profit human scale development organization. They have a 33-year performance history, providing successful interventions to the challenges of unemployment. Their work focuses on developing people through holistic skills training, job creation and enterprise development and has been effective amongst the most vulnerable populations, particularly those with limited education, skills, social and economic opportunities as a result of the legacies of injustice in South Africa.

Since inception in 1989, they have trained more than 17 000 unemployed adults in market relevant skills. With their motto of 'a hand up – not a hand out,' they provide programmes that recognizes human dignity and the human right to live a meaningful life, and assist individuals to regain their self-respect. They do this by empowering them to provide for themselves and for their families. Over the last decade, they have maintained an over 75% success rate of previously unemployed people becoming economically active or given access into further education. Of those economically active, over 32% have started their own businesses.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Co-funding for development of unemployed people - at either LtE campus. The per person costs range between R7 300 (Business Essentials) and R41 000 (Graphic Design).
- Building repairs – campus-specific repairs include roofing and other maintenance at a combined cost of R250 000.
- Funding for specific training equipment or materials – Purchasing of tools & equipment for the upgrade and replication of their Handyman course (R57 000). MACASSAR POTTERY (SKILLS DEVELOPMENT / POTTERY STUDIO)

Macassar Pottery is the flagship of an extensive community transformation process in Macassar, Cape Town. Within the business, they upskill, employ, and incubate un-schooled youths who, incidentally, make up 50% of all young people in South Africa.

Macassar Pottery offers learnerships and on-the-job training to help young people become employable, productive citizens.

With the ceramics, creative tourist, and team-building experiences, the program helps their supporters discover beauty in unexpected and even unlikely places. National reconciliation and restitution are big concepts. Macassar Pottery breaks it down to the marketing and selling of quality products from a marginalized community. A moment of connection and integration forged with each product sale; in the end, making a new kind of society possible.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Training centre - Macassar Pottery needs to acquire a permanent home for their design and outreach centre. They are looking for 1000 changemakers to make a donation of R3000 (USD165 or 170Euro) to help realise this dream.
- Contribute to the training of one youth for a year of on-the-job training at the cost of R6000 per year (USD340 or 330 Euro) / R500 per month
- They are developing an accredited curriculum for young ceramic factory workers who have not completed school. This certificate can be the bridge that brings them back into formal education. Development cost is R30 000 (USD1650 / 1700 Euro). Once accredited they can establish a formal ceramic school that is self-funded to get more youths into jobs.

MAJOR VOICES CHOIR (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT / CHOIR)

Major Voices is a 9 member male choir established in 2012 in the township of Khayelitsha. They have the mission to use music to empower and motivate their community against crime, unemployment, and drugs. Growing up in a challenging and underprivileged environment made them want to initiate change around them by taking to the streets with songs and dance. Performing together helped them make better decisions in life, so they strongly believe that teaching kids about music and arts will help them grow on the right path despite the harsh surroundings.

The choir is mostly known for performing Isicathamiya (traditional African A cappella mixed with dance) but they perform a wide range of genres. They like to mix dance styles and incorporate a variety of different instruments into their performances, including djembe, guitar, drums, piano, bass guitar and marimba.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Uniform – They would need : 9 dashidas (R2 700), 9 black trousers (R1 800) and 9 pairs of white tekkies (R3600). The total amount of R8 100 would allow them to leave their teared uniform for a new one and get appropriate shoes to perform.
- Music instruments – They would like to have their own djembe (R2 000) and a set of marimba (R8-10 000) in order to be more independent and freer to create and perform when they need to.
- White house project – The white house is a very dilapidated community house that Major Voices uses as a center to rehearse and involve kids with their art. They believe that with R6000 they can proceed to a good cleaning and basic repairs/maintenance.

MDZANANDA ANIMAL CLINIC (ANIMAL WELFARE AND SHELTER)

Mdzananda Animal Clinic is a veterinary council registered, NPO animal clinic and shelter based in the heart of Khayelitsha, an impoverished township home to an estimate of 1 million people and 300 000 companion animals.

Founded in 1996 by a community hero, the clinic is the only access to veterinary and welfare services in the community helping close to 1500 animals per month, primarily dogs and cats. Without them most animals won't have access to medical support as private care is too expensive. Animals would live lives of pain and even die.

They also provide shelter to abandoned pets, assist with abuse and neglect interventions and perform humane education. They have a strong focus on community empowerment and education. A community that loves animals is a healthy community. Caring for an animal teaches responsibility, respect for life, compassion and non-violence. These are valuable attributes which flow into everyday life.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- The clinic charges only R150 for treatments even if an operation costs us R6000. Many people Operational costs cover - the clinic charges only R150 for treatments even if an operation costs them R6000. Many people cannot afford even this small fee.
- Medication costs – costs close to R2.4 million per annum and without medication, no treatments or operations can be done.
- Veterinarian costs – their five veterinarians cost R1 million to employ per annum.
- Food for patients and shelter animals - costs close to R50 000 per annum.
- Treatment costs - every animal that enters their doors is sterilized, vaccinated, dewormed and treated for fleas and ticks costing R555 per animal.
- Care services - caring for one homeless pet for his/her first two months costs R1450. Some pets stay up to a year before finding a home. This comes to a total of approximately R435 000 per year excluding overhead and staff costs.

MOYA WE KHAYA 'SPIRIT OF HOME" (ORGANIC URBAN AGRICULTURE / FOOD SECURITY)

Mama Christina Kaba, Abalimi's farming movement leader, founded Moya we Khaya meaning "Spirit Of Home" in isiXhosa, in 2014. One hectare in size, the farm is situated next to the Manyanani Peace Park in Khayelitsha, the first-ever community park established in the townships of Cape Town in 1995, also led by Mama Christina Kaba. Moya comprises approximately 10 micro-farmers.

Moya promotes healthy living through the production and consumption of organic vegetables, to help the community access and afford organic vegetables and provide a learning and training environment. Moya produces a variety of seasonal organic vegetables. A portion of the vegetables are sold as veggie boxes to individuals and families locally in the townships, affluent suburbs, vegetable markets, restaurants & hotels in Cape Town. Vegetables are also donated to seniors, pre-schools and other destitute and vulnerable households. Each member of Moya farm feeds their families with the vegetables grown in the garden.

Moya Garden have an intake of young people studying agriculture at college for a period of 3 months per year providing them with practical knowledge and skills. Moya plans to expand their garden activities to include a packshed and a community hospitality training centre to get more people, especially the youth involved in urban micro farming.

PRIDE SHELTER TRUST (LGBTQI+)

In April 2011, Africa's first formal shelter was established in providing short-term accommodation to the LGBTQI+ minority groups during crisis periods. As of 2018, the Pride Shelter Trust still provides a short-term safe accommodation to people who have been evicted from their homes or have been regarded as social outcasts from their communities as a result of their sexual orientation. As of 2021, the Pride Shelter Trust remains an active anchor for the LGBTQI+ community across provinces and is a dependable source of support in to facilitate the recovery, support and integration of LGBTQI+ individuals into their respective society.

Pride Shelter Trust, accommodates 20 Residents(18 years – 55 years) for 3 months.(Incl. Psycho-Social Support Services, 3 meals, access to cleaning facilities, access to internet,

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Sponsor a Resident – All residents need to pay for accommodation which covers the daily running of the Shelter. In addition, it has been a challenge to source funding for the unemployed residents. It costs R2000 per resident per month. (includes 3 meals per day, cleaning facilities, access to internet/computer, monthly toiletry care packs etc)
- Utilities – Their prepaid electricity and water usage costs R15 000 per month. They have approached the City to reduce the rate, but no luck!
- Psycho-social Support Services– the main intention is not to ‘recycle’ homelessness in South Africa. Thus far, Pride Shelter has a track record of 90% of residents reintegrate back into society. It costs R35 750 per month for their Social Worker, Neuro-linguistic Therapist and Registered Counsellor to deliver quality services that empowers the resident's well-being. Pride Shelter is blessed to only pay a very small fee towards each Practitioner.

QUIRKY30 (SKILLS DEVELOPMENT CODING / IT)

Quirky 30 is a Not-for-Profit Company and a Public Benefit Organisation with BEE Level 1 status, we align our work with the Framework of the UN Sustainable Development Goals for 2030.

Founded by 2 former ex-inmates as a disruptive solution for a pathway out of poverty, inequality and crime – amongst other things our coding programme is tackling the high unemployment rate – which can exceed 70% in these communities.

Youth unemployment in South Africa sits at 52.8% and is one of the highest in the world. The steady increase of the youth population is not being matched by an increase in job opportunities. There is a large discrepancy between what the youth are being taught and what employers expect them to know.

Quirky 30 NPC has developed a powerful, impactful model. We have a bold vision of turning impoverished communities and prisons from gangster-ridden crime hubs offering very few opportunities and hope into dynamic and vibrant tech hubs which can have a national and global impact.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Funds to assist students to travel to Quirky30 to attend classes
- Funds for computers and technical equipment
- Data for students

STEPH'S LADLES OF LOVE (MONTHLY FEEDING SCHEME)

Steph's Ladles of Love began in September 2012 when Steph made the decision to drive into Freedom Farm, an informal settlement in Belhar (near Cape Town airport), offering to help feed the destitute community. The community has no electricity and only two water supply outlets for the entire community. Over 80% of the adult inhabitants are unemployed and many of the children are not attending pre-school or school. That is where Stephanie came in and is trying to make a difference.

Steph made the decision to prepare a healthy warm meal for the community once a month cooking for over 300 people. From 2012 to date, she has consistently delivered. She also works to improve the children's chances of success by taking them to children's shows, helping to place the children at school and provide school supplies. To make each month's feeding scheme possible, she relies on support from her family, friends, the community, and volunteers

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- The basic needs per month in order to cook a warm meal, a drink and fruit:
- 100 kilograms potatoes (R80/kgx10=R800)
- 20 kilograms frozen mixed vegetables (R24/kgx20=R480)
- 10 kilograms chicken pieces (R80/kgx10=R800)
- 20 kilograms rice (R18/kgx20=R360)
- 5 kilograms onions (R20/kgx5=R100)
- Beef/chicken stock (10 boxes at R20 per packet=R200)
- Juice and fruit (optional depending on donations) approximately R500

ULWAZI "KNOWLEDGE" EDUCARE (ECD (EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT))

Ulwazi, "Knowledge" in isiXhosa, Educare, was opened in 1998 by founder Patiswa Patience Bangani in the community of Delft with the goal to educate, nurture and protect the children from child abuse, drugs, and fight poverty.

The Early Childhood Development Center (ECD) provides pre-school education, nurturing and care for children up to 6 years of age. Ulwazi Educare prepares the children for their educational career by following an ECD curriculum provided by Ikamva Labantu.

The pre-school was started in the home of Patiswa. In 2010 funds were raised to provide shipping containers for the classrooms, which were very basic and not conducive to quality education.

On 3 September 2022, thanks to the very kind and generous Uthando donors, Ulwazi Educare opened their brand new, sustainable school building. Built by Natural Building Collective using 1700 old car tyres, 6000 eco bricks and 2000 glass bottles, this unique and beautiful school is truly a place of creativity, education and nurturing. Quality education in quality sustainable buildings.

- Monthly ADT armed response alarm: R500 per month
- School feeding scheme: R5 000 per month

UNFENCE SA

Way back in 1913 South Africa's government passed laws disallowing land ownership by people of colour on more than 80% of the country's land. The resulting loss of ownership has caused generational poverty, to the extent that South Africa is the most unequal country in the world according to the World Bank.

Unfence SA NPC is a non-profit company that redevelops underutilised buildings in poor communities in live – work – play – shop destinations, commonly owned by the community itself via a community value exchange.

Rental income is partly used to facilitate a range of programmes to transform the community. The fact that the community can own its future and pay for its own transformation is deeply empowering and turns townships into must-visit attractions.

From these youth-focused hubs the organisation incubates businesses and exports products, while building a value proposition to motivate surrounding suburbanites to spend time in marginalised communities. They do so not to offer handouts, but to shop, to use our co-working space, or participate in township experiences for which the building is a hub.

Unfence SA believes in a future where South Africans DO want to share the land and its resources. This is where they step in with tools and processes to help communities heal and become prosperous.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Contribute towards the R7 million (USD 350 000) cost of building and renovating an underutilised township building in Macassar
- Sponsor a business coach to incubate one local micro business at R1 200 (USD65) per month
- Sponsor a participant in a 2-day storytelling or ideation workshop at R1 200 (USD65)

ZAMA DANCE SCHOOL (YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH DANCE)

Zama Dance School is an award-winning dance studio located in the heart of Gugulethu, Cape Town. From a small dream in 1984, the school grew until by 1989 it had become an established Trust and registered NPO. Today, Zama caters for up to 100 students annually from 6 to 17 years old. Open six days a week, students enjoy the expertise of both local and international teachers.

Zama students and graduates have proven themselves, both on the local and international stage, however, Zama is so much more than a dance studio. For many, it is a second home and safe space where dance is used as a vehicle for self-discovery and personal growth. A belief in one's ability to succeed plays a major part in making life choices. With dance, outcome is quantifiable, and learners discover that self-discipline, focus, and commitment are the steps to success.

Students spend a considerable amount of their time at Zama. They attend classes three times a week, or more when preparing for performances or exams. Learners are provided with nutritious meals through the feeding scheme and are encouraged to use the premises to do homework. In some cases, support extends to medical and dental care. Launched in 2010, Zama's feeding scheme ensures that all students receive a nutritious meal after all their classes. Sandwiches with assorted fillings or hot meals are prepared daily on the premises and are accompanied with fruit and juice or milk.

ZIZAMELE "JUST DO IT" EDUCARE (EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT)

Zizamele or, "Just do it" in isiXhosa, Educare center is an Early Childhood Development Center (ECD) located in Site C, Khayelitsha. The government does not cater for ECD (early childhood development) education or the provision of pre-school building. Over a million young children in South Africa receive no pre-school education, which is a catastrophe for the country's future. Mrs. Mama Nosebenzile Madala started Zizamele Educare in 1995.

Mama Bukeka Mandlantse, the daughter Mama Madala, started working at the ECD in 2001 and took over as principal in 2005. With the assistance of cherished partners and donors, Uthando helped transform the pre-school from 3 informal structures into a world-class educational facility. The pre-school is run by three qualified ECD teachers, and together with principal Mama Madala, provides quality pre-school education to over fifty young children. Like the other ECD centers, the school has three classes: 0 – 18 months, 3 – 4 years and 5 – 6 years.

Uthando is very proud to work with donors, friends, and benefactors to transform informal structures into world-class educational facilities. Zizamele Educare is the 4th such building and opened officially in August 2018.

Basic needs and approximate budgets

- Annual Insurance on the school building: R4 000
- Contribution to Salaries for 5 pre-school teachers: R10 000
- Maintenance on school: R10 000 per annum
- Mattresses for children: R8000 once off

SPONSOR A DURABLE CEMENT TABLE TENNIS TABLE

Uthando SA had a cement table tennis specially designed and engineered by Andre Carl van der Merwe and JVE Consulting Engineers Incorporated in 2016.

Township schools in South Africa are severely under-resourced with very few after-school activities for children. With nothing to do, children can be enticed to engage in anti-social and negative activities. Most of the township school grounds are uninteresting and devoid of anything attractive and beautiful. The Uthando Cement Table Tennis Initiative aims to provide township schools in Cape Town with a beautifully painted, highly attractive, cement table tennis table and consequently providing school children with healthy, fun and positive sporting opportunities which are physically and mentally beneficial. So far 25 tables have been installed right across the City of Cape Town metro.

NOTE: The tables are expensive, but the table is installed in stages with site visits by the cement company and engineer, then several installation stages of the actual table itself with the production of the foundation, then base and finally delivery of the table top by a truck with a crane to lower it onto the table.

Please also note that Uthando is not making 1 cent out of this initiative, we just want to see as many tables installed at as many deserving schools as possible.

Costs

A 1,2 ton table costs R39 000 fully manufactured, delivered and installed (by a civil engineer) and includes VAT.

(if the table top is delivered more than 15km from the factory, an extra R162 per km)

A set of 4 bats and 8 balls costs R350 from Sportmans Warehouse.

Uthando is not making 1 cent out of this initiative, we just want to see as many tables installed at as many deserving schools as possible.
